Develop a Stronger, More Loving Relationship with improved communication, increased passion and fun, and skills for long-term success.

Reasons to Attend

Learn practical skills and new understandings for a long-term successful, loving relationship, with an emphasis on compassion, fun and pleasure. Use your relationship as a vehicle for personal change and spiritual growth. Understand how the unconscious forces that attracted you to your partner can become a source of conflict and learn new communication skills to break destructive patterns of relating. You and your partner can learn to model a strong, loving and mature relationship. Relevant to those wanting to enrich a good relationship, resolve long-standing difficulties, or who want to future-proof a new relationship.

About The Workshop

The workshop includes lectures, written exercises, re-romanticising exercises, demonstrations and practise of dialogue and communication processes. Couples share privately with each other and you will not be pressured into self-disclosure. Safety and confidentiality are given high priority. Each participant receives a comprehensive manual for use during and after the workshop. Originally designed by Harville Hendrix, author of the best-selling book, "Getting the Love You Want - A Guide for Couples", this workshop is considered comparable to six months of relationship counselling.
